

Rampurhat College
Internal Examination, 2023

Sem: II (Gen)

Paper: AECC II (Communicative English)

F.M: 10

Attempt ten multiple choice questions. Tick the right answer: 10X1

1. The feature of a good listener is – a) the listener pays attention to the speech carefully and with concentration, b) the listener should be deaf, c) the listener is inattentive to what is spoken, d) None of the above.
2. Read this article well. – What type of sentence is this?
a) Assertive, b) Interrogative, c) Imperative, d) None.
3. He felt smell of rat. What is the possible meaning of the underlined idiom – a) He felt something positive in his life, b) he felt that something is wrong, c) he felt that everything is alright, d) none of above.
4. Eye contact can an example of – a) verbal communication, b) non verbal communication, c) communication with words, d) none.
5. Memes, videos and images in Face book are examples of – a) written communication, b) no communication, c) audio communication, d) visual communication.
6. In translation the shift of meaning occurs – a) from source language to target language, b) from target language to source language, c) shift of grammar, d) none.
7. Clarity of ideas can be a feature of – a) broken communication, b) Lack of communication, c) Effective Communication, d) None.
8. Aphasia tells upon – a) heart, b) society, c) politics, d) the ability of communication.
9. Letter to the Principal of a college is a type of – a) informal letter, b) telegram, c) formal letter, d) complaint letter.
10. We like the farmers since they satisfy our hunger by producing crops. Which clause is there in the underlined portion of the sentence – a) Nominal Clause, b) Relative Clause, c) Adverbial Clause, d) None.