About the Seminar

This national seminar and edited book project explores the transformation of Vedanta from a philosophical system into lived spirituality as realised by Sri Ramakrishna Paramahansa and reinterpreted by Swami Vivekananda for the modern world. The seminar foregrounds experiential spirituality, ethical humanism, and social responsibility in contemporary life. After the seminar an ISBN book will be published with all the selected papers.

Objectives

- To examine Vedanta as the philosophical foundation of Indian spirituality
- To analyse Sri Ramakrishna's experiential spiritual praxis
- To study Swami Vivekananda's reinterpretation of Vedanta for modern society
- To explore the relevance of spiritual humanism today

Themes

1. Vedanta: Text, Philosophy, and Practice

(From Scriptural Foundations to Lived Reality)

Sub-Themes:

- Classical Vedantic texts: Upanishads, Bhagavad Gita, Brahma Sutra – interpretative traditions
- Advaita, Vishishtadvaita, Dvaita, and Neo-Vedantic engagements
- Vedanta as Darśana and Sādhana: theory vs lived spirituality
- Oral traditions, folk commentaries, and vernacular Vedanta
- Vedanta in everyday ethics, labour, family life, and rural society
- Vedantic ideas of self (Atman), liberation (Moksha), and duty (Dharma)
- Comparative Vedanta: Indian metaphysics and Western philosophy
- Vedanta as a counter-narrative to materialism and extreme modernity
- Praxis-oriented Vedanta: meditation, service, renunciation, and discipline

2. Sri Ramakrishna: Experience, Pluralism, and Folk Spirituality

(Mysticism Beyond Textual Boundaries)

Sub-Themes:

- Sri Ramakrishna and experiential spirituality (Anubhava)
- Religious pluralism: realization of multiple paths—Hinduism, Islam, Christianity
- Folk religiosity, village cosmology, and goddess traditions
- Bhakti, Tantra, and Vedanta as lived synthesis
- Oral narratives, metaphors, parables, and symbolic pedagogy
- Women, devotion, and the sacred feminine in Ramakrishna's thought
- Rural Bengal's spiritual ecology and temple-centered culture
- Madness, ecstasy, and altered states of consciousness in mysticism
- Ramakrishna as a bridge between folk faith and philosophical Vedanta

3. Swami Vivekananda: Neo-Vedanta, Education, and Nationhood

(Spiritual Humanism and Social Awakening)

Sub-Themes:

- Swami Vivekananda and reinterpretation of Vedanta

- Neo-Vedanta as a response to colonial modernity
- Education for character-building and nation-making
- Youth, strength, discipline, and moral regeneration
- Vedanta and social service: Daridra Narayana Seva
- Nationalism, universalism, and global spiritual dialogue
- Vivekananda and the making of modern Indian identity
- Science, rationality, and spirituality in Vivekananda's vision
- Vedanta as a tool for social equality and dignity of labour

4. Spirituality, Ethics, Ecology, Gender, and Social Reform

(Vedanta in Contemporary Socio-Cultural Life)

Sub-Themes:

- Spiritual ethics and moral responsibility in public life
- Vedantic views on ecology: harmony between human and nature
- Sacred landscapes, rivers, forests, and environmental consciousness
